Consciousness Collective Course FAQs

Learn From Cutting-Edge Equity Facilitators

Who should take this course?

Leaders working to improve the lives and opportunities for all students by engaging in inter-racial conversations about race and its impact on student success.

What will I learn?

How to have effective, non-toxic, open and honest inter-racial conversations about race.

Who are the coaches?

Anti-racist equity leaders, critical race theorists and experienced multi-ethnic race conscious facilitators.

How is the course organized?

Video lessons are coupled with facilitator-graded assignments. Enrollment also includes a 1-Year Virtual Community Membership, which hosts 8 LIVE 1.0 hour Coaching Webinars throughout the year.

How much does it cost?

The discounted fee for non-profits and educators is $495. The regular fee for corporate entities is $895, which includes two (1.0 hour) Individual Coaching Sessions.

Is this course available for continuing education credit?

We are working on that and hope that it will be a 1.0 credit course with additional more intensive coaching intensives to come.

What materials do I need to purchase for this course?

None. But we do recommend "Courageous Conversations About Race: A Field Guide for Achieving Equity in Schools" if you are an educator and want more information about Pacific Educational Group's Systemic Framework for eradicating inequitable and predictable educational outcomes for students of color.
